foreword

This is the story of a year at school. The theme of this yearbook, as was our Junior-Senior Prom, is a Circus.

We have attempted to show by pictures the activities of this year. We trust the spirit of these events will linger with you so that you will remember the student body, the faculty, and Willard High itself. We hope this 1955 CHIEF will bring back memories to you—memories that you will cherish as the years go by.

In Memoriam

P A U L   B A U M A N

The seniors of Willard remember with feelings of joy at having known him and deep sorrow at his early death. His friendly smile was always in great evidence as we associated with him at school.

While with us Paul was active in F.F.A. and helpful with all our class activities.

We seniors wish to express our affection for this member of our class in this way. We remember.

Senior History

Willard High School

Willard, Ohio

June 1, 1955

Dear Seniors,

You have now closed the portals on five of the most memorable years of your lives. As you leave I hope that the knowledge you have acquired will help you to achieve your goals. I recall many amusing and eventful incidents that you experienced during your stay here at Willard High School.

Your class had many boys who participated in the various sports. Your eighth grade basketball team was undefeated. As freshmen they received the Junior High N. O. L. Championship. On the track JACK COLLINS was one of your outstanding men.

HELEN JONES, the president of the Girls' Athletic Association, was an active participant in intramural sports. GEORGETTE JUDSON and AGNES WILKINSON also took part in the volleyball and basketball tournaments.

When you were graduated the band lost many of its important members. The booming of JERRY AUSTIN, bass drummer, could be heard each time the band appeared. He could really make it talk. BARBARA HAMILTON started playing baritone to help the bass section. She formerly played a trombone.

Many amusing incidents occurred in my classrooms. In chemistry class was it GERALD BITTIKOFER or was it the experiments? Nothing seemed to work as Mr. Zulauf said it should. Can you imagine having seven students in a class. Maybe BOB ALLEN and BOB WOLFE can remember. They were two of the seven students in advanced algebra. I wonder if FRANCES HAY and SHIRLEY STEINMETZ will ever be more nervous than they were in speech class. DICK SCHLOTTERER didn't notice as he was asleep mentally. Do you remember the day that the drivers training students received their licenses? LINDA MITCHELL may not keep hers unless she drives with lights at night. Choir just wouldn't have been the same without ROGER REED and BOB HUFF! They had a talent for keeping the tenor section in trouble. Will anyone forget the arguments FRED ELDRED had with Mr. Aukerman in government? I believe the subject was farm life versus city life. ELOUISE ROHRBAUGH and SHIRLEY JAMERSON had quite a time in advanced shorthand. I remember EARL GREEN participating in a few debates about business economics.

Several of you were interested in F.F.A. activities. BOB SHADE and BUD ROBINSON won several prizes for their exhibits at the Huron County Fair. CONRAD ANDROSAC and OLIVER MAHL also participated in the farm projects.

The Crimson and White staff, without the help of the seniors, would have been in real trouble. BOB McKNIGHT, PHYLISS DURR, ANNA COCHRAN, COLLEEN McLAUGHLIN, and LILLIAN SMITH helped with the preparation of the paper. They also worked loyally at the concession stands during the football and basketball games.

The Student Council, led by their president, BOB HUFF, decorated the football field for the Homecoming ceremonies. SHIRLEY CLEM was elected to reign over the game and dance.

The Junior-Senior Banquet was the biggest social event of your high school years. The "Big Top" theme was used throughout. DAVID AMSTUTZ and CHARLES MARTIN designed the decorations for the gym. The comical side show paintings were admired by all. BOB STILLIONS, RONALD SMITH, JANE HARGROVE, STEWART SNOOK, MARY LU FREDERICK and DOROTHY LANGHURST were just a few of you who helped with the other decorations.

Your class had many money-making projects. Your mothers prepared chili for you to sell before the Shelby football game. As seniors BEVERLY GEORGE, DONNA JACOBS and JOAN McCLISH helped serve the supper. A newcomer, CAROLE TAYLOR, counted sales tax stamps to provide funds for your senior trip to New York City. Did NANCY HECKATHORN ever sell all the W.H.S. pins?

Your dramatic productions were many. "Love Hits Wilbur" and "Bobbysox" were your first attempts of this type. As "Our Miss Brooks" ANN LEAK kept the audience in stitches. Who wore that pink Chinese costume? I believe it was KAYE ANTHONY. Didn't MYRON HARGROVE take the easy way out by sustaining his leg injury? JANE HARGROVE had her honeymoon during the Senior Play. Did BOB McKNIGHT get hurt when he fell onto the stage?

Your class contained some famous personalities too. "Mr. Trouble" was DEAN LINK's title. Just ask any teacher! THOMAS OVERLY won the name Mr. President. Aided by the other officers he led his class through successful junior and senior years.

Mr. Aukerman had plenty of help in his office among those were DOLORES LASER, OMA LEE STEPHENS who learned much about the duties of a secretary from Mrs. Lohr.

If I remember correctly a few of you had special pastimes. Almost every Wednesday evening one could see MARY ANN EBERLY and RUTH ANN ROESCH at the Attica square dance. There was a girl in your class who had a special talent for singing. Her name was CORLISS RYMAN. Did you notice a girl with a camera? Yes, that was MARLENE LASH. Your stamp collector was DONNA LILLO.

Many of you owned cars, but I believe the most unique one was the "Fuzz-mobile." As chief proprietor FUZZ MILLER felt it his duty to educate all who saw it. Oh, those beautiful gems of wisdom! Who can forget the day HARLENE STAPF initiated her Skylark? It surely has provided transportation for many students. However BOB WILKINSON, ANGILO CAMISCIONE and about a dozen other boys had to walk for some time. What school could boast about a wrecker parked behind it every day? Thanks to ROGER WILCOX I did. Can you remember that RONALD CHEESMAN and WAYNE STANFIELD had their licenses taken away? Boys, you must learn to drive!

GLENN SEIPLE, MERWYN CARMEAN and RONALD HATTON really sweat on that football field.

Have you ever seen PAT SCHEID mad? If not you've missed something. It happened in speech class. Remember, Pat?

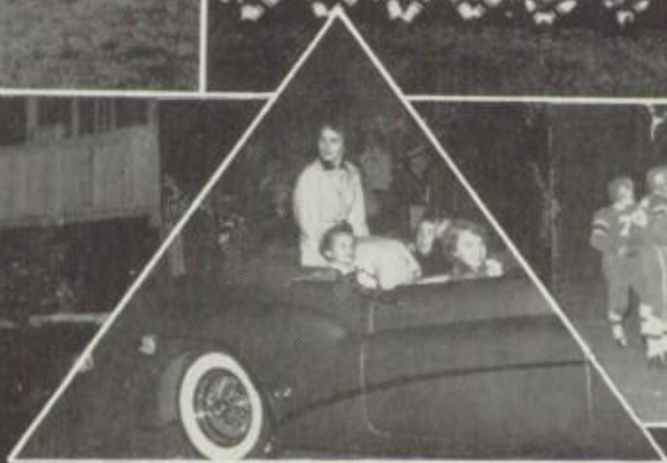

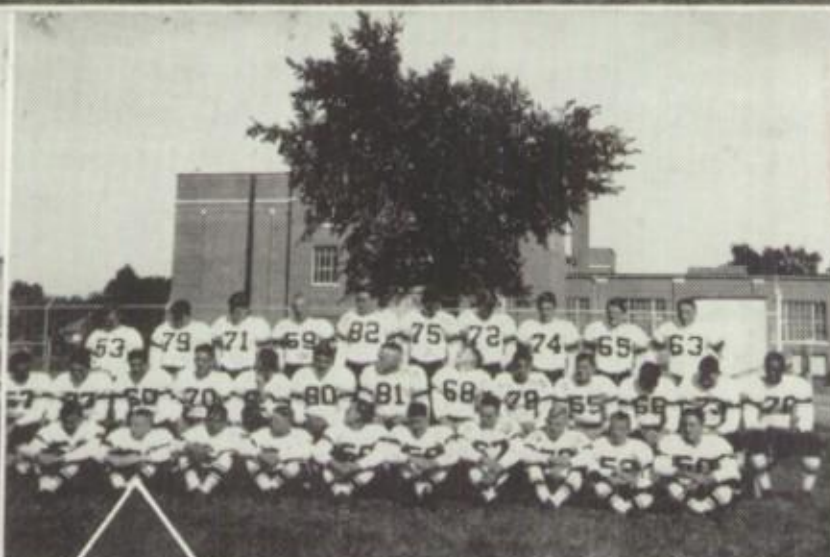

I know you will remember these experiences for a long time. Soon my halls will be empty and my classrooms will be quiet. At last I can get my long awaited rest. This summer you will be scattered to the four corners of the world, but wherever you go, you will always carry with you the memories of those fun filled days at Willard High. I wish the best to all of you!

Forever yours,

Willard High School

P. S.: Come to visit me when you have time.

Junior History . . .

When we entered Willard High as freshmen, the usual confusion escorted us. We traveled the wrong stairs and made the customary mistakes. To guide us through our first year we chose Mrs. Crossen. Our Class Officers were: Larry McLaughlin, president; Tom Coe, Vice-President; Charles McLaughlin, Secretary-Treasurer; and Jerry Neumann, Social Chairman. That year we sponsored football and basketball dances. We also sold football pennants. "Johnny Takes the Cake" was presented as our One-Act Play.

As Sophomores we selected as our class advisor, Miss Paxton, and for our officers, Larry McLaughlin, Tom Coe, Janet Wilkinson, and Jerry Neumann. We held dances, sold felt letters and held a bake sale to raise money. Some of us participated in the All School Play.

This year as Juniors our officers are: Charles McLaughlin, Sandra Smith, Anne Wiles and Margaret Schodorf. We are aided by Mrs. Crossen, our class advisor. We selected mint and silver as our class colors and a pink carnation for our class flower. We have sponsored dances and have sold programs. Our Play was entitled "You're Young Only Twice". The stellar events of the year were the Class Play, receiving our class rings, and the Junior-Senior Prom.

Sophomore History

In 1953, one hundred and four eager Freshmen entered high school. With the advice of Mrs. Crossen and the help of James Jump, Connie Richards, Barton Owens, and Susan Buurma, we had a most successful year.

As Sophomores we feel more sure of ourselves and are always ready to pester the Freshmen. Our adviser and officers are contributing to a memorable and happy year. We look forward to two more successful years.

History of the Freshman Class

The members of the Freshman Class of Willard High spent their first few days of high school memorizing locker combinations and finding their classrooms. At their first class meeting they elected officers and voted for Mr. Zulauf as class advisor. They sponsored the dance after the Shelby game. No dues were collected for the first semester.

Junior Class Play

When the Old Maid returns to her sorority house to live during her summer studies, things really begin to hum. They hum especially loudly because the spoiled son of a millionaire fears the end of his carefree college days. The young man and his friends plan to make a fool of the Old Maid teacher. Apparently she falls into the trap; however, she manages to save herself and shame the young people.

Mrs. Trigg, the understanding and capable house mother, is portrayed by Margaret Schodorf. She is aided by the maid-of-all works, Sophia (Mary Lou Workman). The girls staying at the house are Sandra Smith, Lois Wilhelm, Nancy Koppler, Patti Miller, Nedra Reed, and Pauline Stover. The young gentlemen who are staying for summer school are Michael Hosler, John Kelly, Richard Foran, Dean Hollinger, and Henry Schodorf. All the young people conspire against Miss Agatha, Janet Wilkinson. The arrival of business tycoon Mr. Van Wyck Waterhouse, Sr., played by Larry Hamilton causes much concern. Of course, all ends happily.

The Annual Staff

In the preparation of this Annual, we have attempted to include those things which will give its readers many hours of pleasure both now and in the future. We hope that we have given the pictures which will enable you to reconstruct this year of your life.

As editors we trust that we have directed the staff so that their best efforts have been used to the end that this Annual will be one of the best. The art work of Charles Martin deserves special attention. Tom Overly and Bob Huff have devoted much time to the preparation of the Sports Section. Jane Hargrove should be complimented for her excellent job of picture-mounting. We would also like to thank the business staff and its manager, David Amstutz, for the tireless work and the excellent records they have kept. All those who worked upon the Annual will derive much pleasure from this book both now and later. We wish to thank all of our advertisers, Mr. De Vito, and all others who have helped in making this Annual possible.

Finally, we would like to thank our adviser, Miss Hockenbury, whose splendid direction has made this Annual a success.

Senior Football Players

Robert Wolfe—No. 70, played four years of football. During most of the time he filled the tackle position on the line. Early in his senior year he was converted to fullback. No matter in what position he played he demonstrated tremendous drive and hard tackling. "Bob" was a two year letterman.

Robert Wilkinson—A Co-Captain for the '54 season, was the familiar No. 77. Because of his excellent play calling and ball handling, he was a most successful quarterback. "Wilk" has earned three Varsity letters.

Myron Hargrove—No. 55, was one of our speedy halfbacks. Hampered much of the time by injuries, he nevertheless maintained a real love for the game. "Myron" received three Varsity letters.

Robert Stillions—Playing at an end position for the Flashes, wore No. 60. As a blocker and a pass catcher he was a valuable addition to the team. "Bob" is the possessor of two Varsity letters.

Roger Reed—Our capable center, appeared in jersey 69. Carrying out his blocking assignments made him an outstanding team man. "Rog" earned two letters.

Robert Huff—The other Co-Captain of the '54 season, was a standout at his tackle position. No. 80 cleared the way for many of the backfield men. "Bob" has three Varsity letters to his credit.

Glenn Seiple—Was another of our hard working backs. The familiar No. 63 was seen "cutting-off" tackle often for big yardage. "Nips" earned two Varsity letters.

Senior Football Players

Dean Link—Playing at a guard position, wore jersey No. 79. Weighing 195 lbs., he was one of the strong linemen on defense. "Dean" is a two-year letterman.

Ronald Hatton—Our tiny halfback, wore jersey No. 53. Weighing a slim 125 lbs., he ran well at the halfback position. "Ronnie" has earned two Varsity letters.

Gaylord Miller—Switching from quarterback to tackle in his senior year, could be seen in No. 78. He was also an extra-point kicker. "Fuzz" earned three Varsity letters.

Angilo Camiscione—Our fleet-footed halfback, wore the familiar No. 66. He was always a threat to break away for long runs. "Ang" is the possessor of two Varsity letters.

Merwyn Carmean—Wearing No. 71, played at a tackle position in his senior year. He was another of the strong men on defense. "Merv" earned a Varsity letter in his senior year.

Robert Allen—Holding down a tackle position, appeared in jersey No. 75. He was always a strong man on the line. "Bob" has earned two Varsity letters.

Jack Collins—A very versatile backfield man, could be seen in jersey No. 59. He played a halfback spot in his senior year. "Jack" received a Varsity letter in his senior year.

Fraternal Order of Eagles

The Fraternal Order of Eagles was organized on February 6, 1898. There are now more than a million members and 1758 Aeries in the United States, Canada, Alaska, Hawaii, Philippines, and Guam.

Since its organization, sick benefits of over $70,000,000 and funeral benefits of over $20,000,000 have been paid.

The Eagles have sponsored and worked for the passage of laws and programs to benefit all people of our great country and is a firm and staunch believer of our American system of education.

A modern dormitory costing $160,000 was built at Boys' Town, Nebraska, by our fraternity, which is now building a $20,000 trade school at Boys' Village, Inc., at Smithville, Ohio.

These are a few of the many civic undertakings of the F.O.E.
